

Ms. Zhao Suli

Director General
Policies and Regulations Department
State Administration of Grain, China

Ms. Zhao Suli is director general of Policies and Regulations Department of State Administration of Grain (SAG), P.R. China and senior consultant of Grain Wholesale Market Sub-Commission of China Association of Grain Sector. Ms. Zhao has been dedicated in researches on theory and practice of system establishment of domestic grain market. Being responsible for contacting and guiding the work of market system establishment of some key grain wholesale market on behalf of SAG, Ms. Zhao participated the establishment of National Grain Trading Center and organized surveys among domestic grain wholesale markets and study tours for domestic wholesale market to go abroad. She was involved in stipulation of grain market system building and organized drafting work of The Eleventh Plan of China National Grain Market Establishment and Development Report of China National Grain Market.